PD Neurotechnology[®] participates in Parkinson's Disease Specialist Nurse Association (PDNSA) Virtual Conference 2021

September 8th & 9th, 2021: PD Neurotechnology[®] participated in the Virtual Conference of Parkinson's Disease Specialist Nurse Association (PDNSA), on September 8th & 9th, 2021.

Prof Spyridon Konitsiotis offered a 45' lecture, where he analyzed the value and need of having continuous objective data of Parkinson's Disease patients. Furthermore, he described how PDMonitor[®] works with its 5 monitoring devices, Smartbox, Mobile App & cloud enabled management tool, called Physician Tool. He stressed the importance of monitoring at the patients' home/work environment, in a continuous manner, supporting prompt staging and treatment optimization, leading to a Paradigm Shift.

Finally, he manifested the important role of PD Nurses in the disease management and provided clarifications on to the PDMonitor[®] use by them.
